1. The Chinese Communist Government has approached the Burmese Ambassador to Peiping, U HLA MAUNG, and has asked him to present the following terms to the Government of Burma (GOB) as a possible basis for a future agreement:
 - a. The GOB must immediately engage the Chinese Nationalist units in Burma and make every effort to expel them.
 - b. The GOB must bring pressure to bear on all KMT activities in Burma in order to stop them and should support the activities of Chinese "democratic" organizations.
 - c. In return for GOB agreement to the above terms, the Chinese Communist Government will agree to assist the GOB in the latter's military action against the Chinese Nationalist troops in Burma by making elements of Chinese Communist troops in Yunnan available to the GOB. They will also assure the GOB that no assistance will be given to the Burmese Communist forces and/or any other rebel group.
2. The terms of the proposed agreement are still under consideration by the GOB.
